

Bhajans are songs that express one's love for GOD – a language of the soul

Join us in this dedication of bhajans and recitation of Kanda Sashti Kavacham

Date: 13th November 2015, Friday @ 7.15pm

(2nd day of Skanda Sashti)

Venue: 132 Owen Road, Hindu Centre

Skanda Sashti commemorates the destruction of evil by the Supreme Being. It is observed on the sixth day of the bright fortnight of the Tamil month of Aippasi (October – November).

Sashti is the day that Lord Subramanya defeated the demon Soorapadman. When the Devas could not tolerate the evil doings of this demon, they approached the younger son of Lord Shiva and Parvati for his assistance. He fought Soorapadman for six days, at the end of which the Lord vanquished the asura. He threw his weapon at him and split Soorapadman into two halves. One half became a peacock, which he took as his Vahana. The other became a rooster and was transformed into his banner. The Devas rejoiced—they praised the Lord and prayed to him for six days.

Come and join us during the 2nd day of Skanda Sashti for an evening of enchanting bhajans and chanting of Kanda Sashti dedicated to Lord Skanda also known as Lord Subramanya or Lord Muruga at 132 Owen Road, Hindu Centre on 13th November at 7.15pm.

